1 John F. Kennedy Memorial Plaza
The John F. Kennedy Memorial Plaza is a poignant tribute in Miami's downtown, dedicated to the 35th U.S. President. This serene urban space features a striking, white marble memorial with an inscribed quote, surrounded by reflecting pools and lush landscaping. It's a peaceful spot for reflection, honoring JFK's legacy and vision.

2 Founder's Plaza
The Founder's Plaza Observation Area offers panoramic views of Biscayne Bay and Miami's skyline. Perched along the waterfront, this scenic spot is perfect for snapping photos, watching the sunset, or simply soaking in the coastal vibe. It's a great stop to appreciate Miami's blend of natural beauty and urban energy.

3 John Neely Bryan Cabin
The John Neely Bryan Cabin is a historic, log-built cabin in Miami, one of the city's oldest structures. Originally built in the mid-1800s, it was relocated to its current spot and restored. The cabin offers a glimpse into early Miami life, showcasing pioneer-era architecture and artifacts. It's a charming, low-key stop for history buffs.

4 Pioneer Plaza
Pioneer Plaza is a scenic park in Miami's heart, featuring historic markers, lush greenery, and shaded walkways. The plaza showcases the city's early history with monuments and exhibits. It's a peaceful spot to relax, reflect, or explore Miami's pioneer heritage amidst a tranquil urban setting.

5 Dallas City Hall
Dallas City Hall is a striking modern building with a bold, angular design. Located in the Government District, it's known for its unique architecture and public art displays. The adjacent City Hall Plaza often hosts events and gatherings, making it a vibrant civic space in downtown Dallas.

6 Thanks-Giving Square
Thanks-Giving Square is a serene urban oasis in downtown Dallas, known for its beautiful gardens and contemplative atmosphere. This interfaith plaza features a striking spiral chapel and hosts various events, including holiday celebrations. It's a peaceful spot to relax, reflect, or attend community gatherings.
