1 Ganga Aarti
The Shri Kashi Vishwanath Temple, situated in the ancient and sacred city of Varanasi, India, is one of the most revered Hindu temples in the country. Dedicated to Lord Shiva, the deity of destruction and transformation in Hinduism, it holds immense spiritual significance for millions of devotees worldwide. The temple is renowned for its magnificent architecture, intricate carvings, and spiritual ambiance, drawing pilgrims and tourists alike. It stands as a symbol of devotion, faith, and the rich cultural heritage of India, attracting seekers of spiritual enlightenment and those seeking solace in the divine presence of Lord Shiva.

2 Kashi Vishwanath Temple
Varanasi is one of the oldest continually inhabited cities in the world and it's often described as the "Spiritual Heart of India"s. This is the holiest city for Hindus and one of the top cultural destinations in India. One of the best things to do here is to attend the Ganga Aarti.
The best place to see the Ganga Aarti is at Assi Ghat, which is one of the most famous landmarks in India. This is a wide, open space that can fit a lot of people. Therefore, it won't feel so crowded here.
