2 Santa Barbara Channel

Departing from Ventura Harbor, enjoy a scenic cruise across the Santa Barbara Channel on your journey to Channel Islands National Park. Take in breathtaking ocean views and keep an eye out for dolphins, sea lions, seabirds, and seasonal whales as you travel through one of California's most wildlife-rich marine environments. Admire the rugged coastline and pristine waters while learning about the unique ecosystem that makes this region a natural treasure.

3 Channel Islands National Park, Channel Islands National Park, California

Channel Islands National Park is one of California's most pristine and remote destinations, often called the "Galápagos of North America." Located off the Southern California coast, it features dramatic sea cliffs, untouched beaches, crystal-clear waters, and unique wildlife, accessible only by boat or plane.The park offers an unspoiled coastal wilderness where nature thrives undisturbed, far from the mainland. Upon arrival, tailor your experience with a private guided hike to scenic viewpoints like Cavern Point or Potato Harbor, seasonal sea kayaking through volcanic sea caves and kelp forests, or luxury beach relaxation with a dedicated setup of chairs and shade. Enjoy flexible timing throughout the day to take photos, explore short nature walks in search of the island fox or just relax in the beach and enjoy the nature's beauty.

4 Ventura Harbor

After a day of wholesome exploration, board your vessel with priority seating for the return cruise to Ventura Harbor. Relax on deck as you take in sweeping sunset views over the open Pacific Ocean.
