1 Switzerland Trail
Travelers will ride along the famous Switzerland Trail—an old narrow-gauge railroad route surrounded by tall pines, open meadows, and sweeping mountain views. They'll experience gentle off-road terrain perfect for e-biking, stop at scenic overlooks for photos, learn the history of the trail and its mining past, and enjoy the quiet beauty of Boulder's high country. This part of the tour offers a mix of adventure, nature, and stunning Colorado landscapes.

2 Mount Alto Picnic Area
Travelers will enjoy a peaceful stop at the Mount Alto Picnic Area, a quiet forested spot surrounded by tall pines and fresh mountain air. They can relax, explore short walking paths, take photos at scenic viewpoints, and enjoy the calm beauty of the wilderness. It's a perfect place to unwind, stretch, and enjoy Colorado's natural landscape during the tour.

3 Nederland
Travelers will visit the charming mountain town of Nederland, known for its laid-back vibe, alpine views, and rich mining history. Guests can stroll through the small downtown, enjoy local shops and cafés, and soak in the cool mountain atmosphere. It's a perfect stop to experience authentic Colorado mountain culture.

4 Busey Brews Smokehouse & Brewery
Travelers will stop at this popular local brewery known for its relaxed mountain vibe, handcrafted beers, and slow-smoked barbecue flavors. Guests can enjoy the open-air patio, take in views of the surrounding forested hills, and experience a true Colorado mountain eatery. It's a great spot to unwind, try local brews, and enjoy the friendly Nederland atmosphere.
