1 Kaya Vineyard and Winery
Kaya Vineyard and Winery, located in Dahlonega, Georgia, is a premier North Georgia wine destination perched 1,600 feet above elevation, offering panoramic views of the Appalachian Mountains. Reborn from the former Blackstock Vineyards, this 40-acre estate features estate-grown wines, a tasting room with 12-foot windows, a covered deck for live music, and rustic-modern, on-site cottage accommodations.

2 Cottage Vineyard & Winery
The Cottage Vineyard & Winery is a family-owned winery in the North Georgia mountains, known for its relaxed, welcoming atmosphere and sweeping panoramic views of the surrounding peaks. Set on a 29-acre property, it offers a cozy tasting experience with a range of red, white, and dessert wines, along with live music and plenty of outdoor seating that creates a peaceful, retreat-like vibe.

3 CeNita Vineyards and Winery
CeNita Vineyards & Winery is a family-owned winery nestled near Yonah Mountain in Cleveland, Georgia, offering a relaxed, scenic atmosphere with estate-grown wines and beautiful vineyard views. Known for its welcoming, down-to-earth vibe, it features a spacious tasting room, outdoor lawn areas, and frequent live music, making it an inviting stop for both wine lovers and casual visitors.

4 Serenity Cellars
Serenity Cellars is a family-owned boutique winery in the North Georgia Mountains known for its warm, Tuscan-inspired atmosphere and handcrafted, Old-World–style wines. Visitors enjoy a relaxed tasting-room experience with live music, outdoor seating, and small bites, making it a cozy social getaway as well as a picturesque venue for private events.

5 Helen
Helen, Georgia, is a charming, Alpine-style village nestled in the Blue Ridge Mountains along the Chattahoochee River, renowned for its re-created Bavarian architecture, cobblestone alleys, and vibrant Oktoberfest celebrations. Located in Northeast Georgia, this former logging town features over 200 specialty shops, German eateries, wineries, and year-round outdoor activities like tubing, hiking, and ziplining.
