1 Saguaro National Park
Saguaro National Park is a stunning desert landscape located near Tucson, famous for its towering saguaro cacti—the largest cacti in the United States. This national park showcases the beauty of the Sonoran Desert, with scenic drives, hiking trails, and diverse wildlife.

2 Tombstone
Tombstone is a legendary Old West town known for its rich history, frontier spirit, and well-preserved 19th-century charm. Often called “The Town Too Tough to Die,” Tombstone was once a booming silver mining town and is famous for the historic gunfight at the O.K. Corral.

3 Bisbee
Bisbee is a charming historic mining town nestled in the Mule Mountains, known for its vibrant arts scene and unique character. Once a thriving copper mining hub, Bisbee has transformed into a lively cultural destination filled with colorful buildings, art galleries, boutiques, and cafés.

4 Scottsdale
As the tour wraps up, you leave the artistic hills of Bisbee and the historic streets of Tombstone behind. The return drive through Southern Arizona offers a relaxing chance to unwind as you head back to Phoenix.
