1

Another Side Of San Diego Tours

Experience the best private sightseeing tour in America’s Finest City as we escort you through San Diego’s most beautiful and renowned locations, beginning right from your point of origin.

2

Coronado Bridge

Completed in 1969, the Coronado Bridge stretches over 11,000 feet and soars to a maximum clearance of 200 feet. At its base on the San Diego side lies the colorful Chicano Park, a cultural landmark rich with murals and history. The bridge’s elegant curve is easily visible from both the coastline and the sky, making it one of the city’s most recognizable sights. Today, the Coronado Bridge stands as a true symbol of San Diego—much like the Golden Gate Bridge represents San Francisco.

3

Coronado Island,

Translated from Spanish as “The Crowned One,” Coronado Island is a true coastal gem. Encircled by shimmering mica-laced beaches, the island boasts charming art galleries, boutique shops, and world-class restaurants, making it a beach lover’s paradise. Attracting visitors since before the 1880s, Coronado remains a must-see destination for anyone seeking the quintessential Southern California beach experience.

4

The Coronado Ferry Landing

Nestled in one of the most picturesque spots in Coronado, the Coronado Ferry Landing offers everything you could want in a premier waterfront shopping village.

5

Hotel del Coronado

An iconic oceanfront landmark since 1888, our Victorian-style resort on Coronado Island has welcomed royalty, celebrities, and beach-loving families for more than 130 years. Nestled along the Pacific, it features a luxurious wellness spa, outdoor pool, and family-friendly activities. Guests can savor stunning California sunsets at seven waterfront dining venues. With chandelier-lit ballrooms, lush gardens, and breathtaking panoramic views, every event here is truly unforgettable.

6

Glorietta Bay Park

A bayside playground featuring a boat ramp and picnic area, offering scenic views of downtown San Diego.

7
