Phoenix

Starts at 6:00 AM, 6:30 AM, 7:00 AM, 7:30 AM · pickup up to 45 min earlier

1 Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village

Stroll through this beautiful Mexican-style artisan village nestled under the shade of giant sycamore trees. Explore unique art galleries, shop for handcrafted Southwestern jewelry and pottery, and admire the traditional fountains and cobblestone paths. The perfect spot to experience Sedona's vibrant arts scene and grab a quick bite or drink.

2 Montezuma Castle National Monument

Marvel at one of the best-preserved cliff dwellings in North America. High above the desert floor, gaze up at the incredible 20-room structure built into a limestone cliff by the Sinagua people over 800 years ago. Take a peaceful walk along the shaded, sycamore-lined path while learning about the rich Native American history and culture of the region.

3 Chapel of the Holy Cross

Admire one of Sedona's most iconic architectural marvels. Built directly into the towering red rock cliffs, this stunning Catholic chapel offers some of the most panoramic views of the Sedona landscape. Step inside to experience the peaceful atmosphere, admire the magnificent floor-to-ceiling windows, and take incredible photos from the outdoor observation deck. Whether you want to light a candle, browse the gift shop on the lower level, or simply reflect in silence, this stop offers a deeply moving experience. Widely considered a highlight for anyone seeking the spiritual and architectural heart of Sedona.

4 Bell Rock

Get up close to one of Sedona's most iconic and prominent red rock formations. Famous for its distinct bell shape and widely recognized as one of Sedona's most powerful energy vortex sites, Bell Rock offers a classic Southwestern view. Take incredible photos from the base, enjoy a short walk along the scenic trails, and experience the unique, vibrant energy that draws visitors from all over the world.

5 Uptown Sedona

Stroll through the lively heart of Sedona along Historic Highway 89A, framed by breathtaking red rock views. Browse unique local shops including New Age vortex and crystal stores, Native American jewelry, and the famous Red Dirt Shirts. Grab a bite at one of the many cafés and restaurants with stunning outdoor views, and soak in the rich culture and history that makes Uptown Sedona truly unforgettable.

Unwind at Page Springs Cellars, a stunning family-owned winery nestled along the banks of Oak Creek, just 30 minutes from Uptown Sedona in the Verde Valley. Enjoy a relaxing wine tasting featuring premium estate-grown Arizona wines, including award-winning Rhône-style reds, or grab a delicious bite from the bistro menu featuring small plates, pizzas, and salads. Stroll the creekside paths, take in the beautiful vineyard views, and soak in the laid-back atmosphere. The perfect final stop to toast to an unforgettable day.

Phoenix

After an enjoyable day exploring the best of Sedona and the Verde Valley, sit back and relax on a comfortable, scenic drive back to Phoenix, bringing an unforgettable day tour to a perfect close.
