1 Southfork Ranch

Step into television history on a privately guided tour of the iconic ranch made famous by the hit TV series Dallas. For thirteen unforgettable seasons, millions of viewers around the world followed the dramatic lives of the Ewing family — and today, you can walk the very grounds where the series was filmed.
Relive the glamour, power struggles, and unforgettable moments that made the show a global phenomenon. Who could forget the famous cliffhanger, “Who Shot J.R.?”
During your visit, your professional guide will remain with you throughout the entire experience, sharing behind-the-scenes stories, filming insights, and fascinating details about the characters and cast. Please note that our tour guides are among the only guides in Dallas officially approved to conduct privately guided tours of Southfork Ranch’s grounds, ensuring a fully immersive and exclusive experience.
Come see where television history was made and experience firsthand the lifestyle that made the Ewings legendary.

2 Dallas Downtown Historic District

Dallas is the vibrant cultural and commercial heart of North Texas, known for its modern skyline, rich Western heritage, world-class museums, professional sports teams, and diverse dining scene. Visitors can explore historic landmarks, bustling entertainment districts, shopping centers, and attractions such as the Dealey Plaza and the Dallas Arts District, making Downtown Dallas a dynamic destination for history, culture, and urban experiences.

3 Renaissance Tower

Renaissance Tower is one of the tallest skyscrapers in Dallas, standing 886 feet (270 meters) tall with 56 floors. Completed in 1974, the iconic tower is known for its distinctive illuminated rooftop design and serves as a major office building in the Downtown Dallas skyline. It is a prominent architectural landmark and a popular subject for photography, especially at night when its LED lights are illuminated.

4 Reunion Tower

Reunion Tower is one of Dallas’ most recognizable landmarks, featuring a distinctive geodesic dome topped with hundreds of LED lights. Standing 561 feet (171 meters) tall, the tower offers panoramic 360-degree views of the city from its GeO-Deck observation level. Visitors can enjoy interactive exhibits, stunning skyline photography, and spectacular daytime or nighttime views, making it a must-visit attraction in Downtown Dallas.

Dealey Plaza National Historic Landmark District

Dealey Plaza is a historic public square in Downtown Dallas best known as the site of the assassination of John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963. Designated a National Historic Landmark, the plaza features monuments, landscaped grounds, and significant viewpoints related to the event. It remains one of Dallas' most visited historical sites and serves as an important place for learning about American history.

Pioneer Plaza

Pioneer Plaza is a popular public park in Downtown Dallas featuring one of the world's largest bronze monument installations. The plaza showcases 49 life-sized bronze longhorn cattle being driven by three cowboys, commemorating the historic cattle drives that helped shape Texas. Set among native landscaping, streams, and waterfalls, it offers excellent photo opportunities and a glimpse into the region's Western heritage.
