2 Agra
Local market near the Taj Mahal: Agra is known for numerous varieties of unique and extinct crafts which are nowhere to be seen these days. One of the most commonly bought collectibles is a small marble replica of the Taj Mahal. The shopping scene in Agra is buzzing with markets, department stores, retail outlets, and local bazaars. Agra is home to many people like artisans, jewelers, embroiders, carpet makers, and weavers who come here to showcase their precious talent.

3 Agra Fort
The Agra Fort is a historical fort in the city of Agra and is also known as Agra's Red Fort. Mughal emperor Humayun was crowned at this fort. It was later renovated by the Mughal emperor Akbar from 1565 and the present-day structure was completed in 1573. It served as the main residence of the rulers of the Mughal dynasty until 1638 when the capital was shifted from Agra to Delhi. Standing calmly on either bank of River Yamuna, this place also gives a heart-pounding view of the Taj Mahal.

4 Taj Mahal
The Taj Mahal, one of the Seven Wonders of the World, is a living monument silently whispering the love of the legendary Mughal emperor Shah Jahan for his wife Mumtaz Mahal. It is one of the most prominent symbols of love situated on the banks of the Yamuna River in the historical city of Agra.
